

INSTRUCTOR - INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING

College of Engineering

Job Summary:

The Instructor – Industrial Engineering, under the supervision of the Dean, College of Engineering, is responsible for assistance in teaching, design and delivery of laboratory and tutorial sessions, evaluation of assignments and student assessment.

Primary Duties & Responsibilities

- Teach professional program courses to undergraduate and graduate students, and support in the design and formulation of curriculum and academic programs
- Prepare tutorial sessions using modern teaching methods and conduct these sessions in the class room and the laboratory
- Perform administrative and business activities in support of academic programs in the college
- Develop class work and homework assignments, grade the assignments and exams, assess class performance
- Provide support to research and scholarly activities in the College by participating in such activities
- Design and operate laboratories based on up to date engineering technologies, and design laboratory workshops and demonstrations

Education & Experience:

- Bachelors and Masters in Industrial Engineering
- Solid academic performance
- Creative in delivering training sessions
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Experience in teaching and/or training
- 3 to 5 years of related and relevant experience

Applications should be sent to;

Mr. Mohammed Jameeluddin
Business Administration Officer, College of Engineering,
Alfaisal University, Email: mjameeluddin@alfaisal.edu